Join us for a simple, yet well meaning service project. Annually, we honor Alfred Bromelsick who, upon his death in 1950, left his estate to the youth of Lawrence through the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and 4-H.

Members of each group and guests who attend are encouraged to bring flowers from their garden to leave at Mr. Bromelsick's grave site.

Masks will be required and social distancing will be followed. The ceremony will be about 15 minutes in length.
